A TERRIFIC wind storm passed over Lorain county, Ohio, Wednesday night. At Milan the storm did great damage to houses, barns and crops. John Johannes, another farmer, was struck by a barn door, having one leg crushed and another broken. His injuries are serious. Two other persons were slightly injured. It was one of the worst storms which ever visited that section of the country.

JOE BRADY CONVICTED

Of the Murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Burke,

And Sentenced to Be Hanged—Further Testimony as to the Identity of "Number One"—Crima Preparing for War.

LONDON, April 13.—The testimony given by James Cary, the informer, when under cross-examination in the assassination trial yesterday, has made a decided impression here and occasioned much unfavorable comment. After admitting that he had been promised a pardon before he consented to give evidence against his fellow-conspirators, Cary immediately and positively identified the photographs shown him, and said to be portraits of James Tynan, as those of "Number One," although the photographs in question bear little resemblance to the description of the latter recently published by the Paris Soleil in its report of an interview with Tynan.

The latter is therein described as a strongly-built tall man of about forty-five years of age. His beard is long and black, and his jet black hair makes him look younger than he is. Tynan is now in the City of Mexico, where he has a brother who is a priest.

DUBLIN, April 13.—The trial of Joe Brady was continued this morning. The defense called a clerk named Kennedy, who swore that he spoke to Brady, who was accompanied by a girl, on Dominick street, between 5 and 7 o'clock on the evening of May 6. He recognized Annie Meagher, who testified yesterday that she was with Brady that evening, as the girl.

Witness said he also met Brady on the following day. The latter declared that the murders would ruin the cause of Ireland.

Upon the conclusion of Kennedy's testimony the defense announced that they would call no other witnesses. Arguments of counsel for the defense and prosecution followed.

The judge finished his charge at 13 minutes after 5 o'clock, when the jury retired. They were sent but a short time, and returning to the court-room announced that they found Brady guilty of the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Burke. Brady was immediately sentenced to be hung.

China Preparing for War.

BERLIN, April 13.—The large orders recently given by the Chinese Government to German manufacturers for arms, ammunition and vessels of war, have attracted general attention, and other facts which have just come to light show that China has begun in earnest to prepare for war with Japan.

To this is attributed the result of the Chinese Government to establish a permanent naval station in the Corea in order to prevent the Japanese from settling on the Peninsula.

LONDON, April 13.—A telegram from Hong Kong, dated April 11, says: The French Minister to China arranged the Tonquin affair satisfactorily in December, but the new French Ministry rejected the arrangement. The result will probably be a long and costly war for France.

China will use her best troops, which will probably be commanded by European leaders, and perhaps will be assisted also by a European ally.

Tewkesbury Horrors.

Further Testimony Relating to the Inhumanities Practiced by the Management.

Boston, April 13.—In the Tewkesbury Alms-house investigation yesterday, J. C. Burt testified that he had made the lowest bid to supply milk to the alms-house, but others had secured the contracts. Governor Butler introduced the testimony of former inmates, one of whom, Jas. A. Goodwin, corroborates the testimony as to the indiscriminate bathing of healthy and diseased patients in the same water. Good clothing, which he had taken to the alms-house, had been stolen from him. He had complained to General Butler of the bathing abuses, and they stopped soon after.

Harriet A. Jackson said she got very little to eat at the alms-house, and it was of poor quality. She left in consequence.

Otto Hoinden, a German, testified that he was obliged to bathe in water that had been used by men having sores, and was compelled to work in the bakery.

Charles B. Marsh, clerk at Tewkesbury, and son of the Superintendent, was next called. He kept the books. All the books have been sent to the State-house. No register of burials of the dead has been kept, and there is no means of finding out what has become of inmates who have died. The witness said:

"I have no record of the clothing which the inmates brought to the institution. Money belonging to inmates is given to me when they come, and I give it to them when they go away, but take no receipt for it. I kept a record of bank books belonging to inmates, gave the books of dead inmates to Mr. Wrightinton, and took receipts for them. I knew from my brother that there is a memorandum kept of the bodies sent away."

It appearing that all the books had not been produced, Governor Butler again demanded that they be surrendered, so that he could examine them. At this point the hearing was adjourned.

Coming to Terms.

CINCINNATI, April 13.—The differences which have existed among the cigarmakers of this city and their employers are nearly adjusted. At a meeting of the bosses, held this morning, the advance of one dollar per thousand asked for by the Union was agreed to. The only differences yet to be adjusted are the questions of furnishing light and the right of employees to visit the different shops to ascertain whether the bosses live up to their agreements.

Scheller's Trial.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 13.—In the Scheller trial this morning the prosecution is submitting testimony showing that the bar and nearly all its fixtures, which Scheller insured in his own name, were in reality the property of the Newhall House Company.

Sitting Bull Convicted.

And No Doubt There is Great Rejoicing Among the Angels in Heaven.

MILWAUKEE, April 13.—Bishop Marty, of Dakota, the leading Indian missionary, is in the city. He said that he had converted Sitting Bull to the Catholic faith, and was on the eve of receiving him into the church. The interesting event will take place in May. The ceremony of the event of opening the doors of the church to the notorious savage chief will be made imposing and interesting. There are now 2,000 Indians in Dakota belonging to the Catholic church.

South Carolina Election Frauds.

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 13.—The State Democratic Committee at their meeting in this city adopted measures providing for a vigorous defense of the Democrats who will be brought before the United States Court at Charleston next week. Ex-United States Judge A. G. Magrath and ex-Attorney General L. F. Yumans have been chosen as special counsel in the defense. Thirty-seven defendants have thus far been bound over, two from Chester, two from Fairfield, and thirty-three from Marion county alone. A dozen warrants were issued in Barnwell county yesterday. The committee resolved to lay the means and talent of the Democratic party in this State under contributions to the fullest extent necessary for the defense and protection of the accused in these cases.

Bad Boiler Explosion.

ASHTABULA, O., April 13.—One of the boilers of the Hitchcock & Bradley Binding Works exploded this morning almost demolishing the extensive establishment, as well as the adjoining building of the McGuire Fifth Wheel Works. The large three story brick building is very badly wrecked. The dome of the boiler, weighing 600 or 800 pounds, was blown over the building and 400 feet beyond, landing in the yard of J. M. Hardy, but a few feet from his door. Charles Grubbins, the night watchman, was found, badly mangled, beneath the debris. He leaves a wife and six small children. The loss to the building and stock will amount to $25,000 partially insured.

Major Phipps Once More in Custody.

PHILADELPHIA, April 13.—Major Phipps, the absconding Philadelphia official, will arrive here to-day from Hamilton, Ont., in charge of Capt. R. J. Lindar and Officer Bell, of Pinkerton's agency. Speaking of his rearrest, District Attorney Graham says: "I will endeavor to have Major Phipps committed without bail. It has been shown that $13,000 bail was insufficient to insure his presence, and the chances are that $20,000 bonds would not be any more efficacious in holding him. It is a matter entirely discretionary with the court, but I believe the measures should be taken to retain the Major for trial this time."

Made a Clean Job of It.

CLEVELAND, O., April 13.—At 5:30 o'clock this morning Johnson Zeiter, a German, of No. 188 Wiley street, committed suicide by shooting, death resulting instantly. He used an old-fashioned single barreled dragon pistol of fifty-five caliber. His wife begged of him to give her the pistol, but he pushed her aside, threatening to shoot her if she did not let him alone. Pressing the muzzle against his teeth he pulled the trigger, blowing the whole top of his head off.

The Horrible Buzz-saw.

ARMADA, MICH., April 13.—At Short's sawmill Phillip Short, the proprietor, while oiling a buzz-saw, was caught by the sleeve and drawn upon the saw. He had his right leg cut entirely off, and the saw ran the entire length of the other leg, from the thigh to the foot, and then threw him six feet, striking his head on a bolt, making a fracture of the skull. He lived three

ONE DAY IN NEW YORK

With Patti, Bruce, Holmes and Walsh in the Ring.

The Old Type Founder a Victim of a Woman's Wiles—The New Nickle-Dinner to Dr. Holmes—Arrival of Walsh.

E Pluribus Unum Non Est.

NEW YORK, April 13.—A new five cent piece appeared on the street to-day. It is identical with the last issue except the word "cents" is substituted for "E Pluribus Unum." The motto now appears in small letters above the wreath. The new coin has not been received in stock at the sub-Treasury as yet.

Carroll's Defalcation.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Mayor Edson said to-day that, so far as known at present, the loss to the city by Carroll's defalcation will amount to $150,000. The commissioners of accounts have found out the names of persons in whose favor the money was drawn, and it is expected that they will be asked to explain in a day or two.

Arrival of John Walsh.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Mr. John Walsh, whose extradition the British Government recently attempted to obtain from the French Government on information lodged against him by the informer Carey, arrived here yesterday. He is fifty years of age, has iron gray hair, sandy mustache, and a ruddy complexion. He is 5 feet 11 inches in height, broad shouldered and muscular. He has sufficient accent to betray his Irish nationality. He has been engaged in all the Irish movements of late years against the British Government.

Dinner to Oliver Wendell Holmes.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Nearly 300 persons sat down last evening in Delmonico's at the dinner to Oliver Wendell Holmes. The dinner was a perfect success. All the prominent persons in the city were present. Dr. Holmes looked remarkably well. He carries his years well. On rising to respond to the toast of his health, he was given a perfect ovation of applause, lasting for several minutes. His speech, which took the form of a poem, was a perfect scintillation of eloquence and wit, bubbling over with point and originality.

A Startling Verdict.

NEW YORK, April 13.—Ernestine Closs, a young lady with a rather fast reputation, brought suit against the well known type founder, Bruce, of this city, for $50,000 breach of promise of marriage. She had stated, as was testified to in court yesterday, that she was playing him for a sucker. He is very old—aged seventy-three—and what she wanted was his money. Strange as it may appear, the jury have brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $3,792. An allowance of 5 per cent. was granted to the plaintiff's counsel, and a motion for a new trial was denied.

For Teaching Patti How to Sing.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The case of Sophie M. Manzocchi against Mme. Patti to recover $2,000 and interest for singing lessons given by Mariano Manzocchi, husband of the plaintiff, was to-day brought to a close by a report of the referee, which consults the plaintiff. The claim is denied on the following grounds: First, the plaintiff had no real knowledge that the lessons had ever been given Mme. Patti. Second, the plaintiff named no specific amount, but said "to nearly $3,000." Third, the defendant had never acknowledged the claim.

BLOODED STOCK.

Prices Paid for Trotting Stock at Louisville Yesterday.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., April 13.—The great sale of trotting stock by R. S. Veech and J. C. Ferran & Co., commenced at the fair grounds yesterday. The weather was all that could be desired. The attendance was large, many of the leading horsemen of the country being present in person or represented. There were fifty-seven horses on the list to be sold, principally the get of Princes, Auditor, Cuyler, and Panoast.

The crowd was made up principally of buyers, very few being present as mere spectators, and the bidding was lively. The fifty-seven animals sold brought $26,730, or an average of $469. There were sold nineteen colts and fillies by Cuyler, at an average of $393; twenty by Princes, average of $514; seven by Auditor, average $254; five by Panoast, average $345. Wilmington, a two year old colt, by George Wilkes, dam Lady Patchen, was sold for $4,010. This was a beautiful bay of handsome form, good movement and speedy. The purchaser was Mike Bowerman, of Lexington, Ky. The stallion Auditor, who has got a number of most excellent colts, was sold for $400, which was considered only a moderate price.

The Indiana Oratorical Contest.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 12.—Asher, of the State University, who was accused of plagiarism, was accorded first place in the oratorical contest, and Fisher, of Hanover, second. Both are members of the Ligma Chi fraternity. The faculty of the State University have expelled Asher for violating the rules.

BONE AND SINEW.

Whether It Should be Expended for Love or for Money—That's the Question.

NEW YORK, April 13.—There are now about 1,500 cigar-makers on a strike in this city, but many of the manufacturers have acceded to the demand of the workmen, and the latter are confident that they will be successful in all the shops within a week.

DEDHAM, MASS., April 13.—The spinners at the Merchant's Woolen Mill struck this morning for an advance for ten cents per hundred reels. By their action they forced the weaves to quit work, and there are between 300 or 400 men out. They are now making from 80 cents to $1.50 per day, and they wanted to average $1.25 per day. Their employers threaten to reduce the wages ten per cent. unless all hands return to work, as the mill is losing money and is only running to accommodate the help.

MADISON, Wis., April 13.—The Governor last evening received a dispatch from the Sheriff at Superior, Douglas county, saying that he was wholly unable, without bloodshed, to hold the attached property in the suit against the Page & Sexsmith Lumber Company. The Sheriff added that a hundred ex-employees of the company were forcibly removing the property for wages. The Governor telegraphed the Sheriff to call on the authorities of the counties and all good citizens to maintain him in his duties.

READING, PA., April 13.—It was learned at the office of the Reading Iron Works to-day that Monday next the rolling and sheet mills will be shut down indefinitely, on account of the dullness of trade. Between four and five hundred hands will be thrown out of work. The company refused large orders recently at prices which would lose them money. Their pipe mill is running on half time. A committee of the strikers called at the office of the Mellert foundry this morning and agreed to compromise the difficulties between the proprietors and men for five per cent. increase of wages. The men originally wanted ten to fifteen per cent. increase all around. All went to work except three.

THEATER OF DEATH.

Terrible Gas Explosion During a Performance, Resulting in Twenty-One Killed and 100 Mortally Wounded.

PARIS, April 13.—A terrible explosion, accompanied by heavy loss of life, occurred at the theater in Revel, a town of about 6,000 inhabitants, on the River Garonne. A comedy was being performed by a Lyons Company, and about 930, while several actors were on the stage, a tremendous explosion occurred, blowing off the roof, breaking all the windows and partitions, and bulging out the walls partially. In an instant all was dark, save a portion of the scenery, which had caught on fire, giving an indistinct light to the terrible grave. The shrieks and groans and cries of pain made the small auditorium a perfect pandemonium. Several were crushed to death, and many had legs and arms broken, and suffered fearful contusions during the terrible jam. It appears that the large meter was under the stage in a corner, and that the explosion was probably caused by one of the supes or underlings lighting a match. The reports place the number of killed at twenty-one, and the mortally injured at about four times that number.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Wm. M. Crockett Dies of Mob Violence, Contracted at an Early Hour in the Morning.

LYNSBURG, Va., April 13.—Early this morning about one hundred disguised persons attacked the jail at Wytheville, forced the Sheriff to surrender the keys, took Wm. M. Crockett from his cell, and hung him from a beam of a mill on the outskirts of town. Crockett was awaiting trial for the murder of Joseph H. E. Hurst, Wythe county. The murder was cold-blooded, and Crockett would have been lynched at the time, had he not escaped. He was captured two months ago, and brought back for trial. After hanging him, the mob riddled his body with bullets to assure death. None of the lynchers were recognized. Intense excitement prevails at Wytheville.

The Newhall House Incendiary.

MILWAUKEE, April 13.—The trial of George Scheller, the Newhall-house incendiary, again occupied the attention of the municipal court yesterday. Among the witnesses examined were Wm. Lenahan, engineer of the hotel; Thomas Delaney, night clerk; Mrs. Helen Neiman, janitress; August Watted, barkeeper for Scheller; Wm. Hughes, porter. Nothing was elicited bearing upon the guilt of the prisoner, and the opinion is rapidly gaining ground that no case can be sustained against him.

A Steamer and Six Lives Lost.

COLUMBUS, Ga., April 12.—The steamer Lyly, of the Central Line of steamers, last night struck a bridge at Fort Gaines, carrying away her cabin, and striking a pier, sunk immediately. The first and second clerk, a negro child and three deck hands are missing. She had a miscellaneous cargo. The boat and cargo are a total loss.

WHEN ex-Senator Kellogg asserted that he should not have been indicted because he saved the republican party in 1876 he evidently overlooked the fact that the party has more than it can do just now to take care of itself without bothering about Kellogg.

THE following is from the Courier-Journal: The Baltimore gas companies have agreed to charge $1 a 1,000 cubic feet, and one of the St. Louis companies has reduced its price from $2.50 to $1.50. There is not a gas company in the United States, located within the area of coal facilities, which can not make a good profit selling gas at $1.50 and a fair profit even at $1. In England where the residuum is all disposed of to dyers, agriculturists, druggists, etc., gas-making is profitable at seventy-five cents.

A FRANKFORT special says: The Superior Court in the case of the Kentucky Central Railroad Company vs. Kenney, decided a point of much interest to the legal fraternity. The compilers of the general statutes, in their efforts to become very precise, became very obscure regarding the law in reference to the selection of special Circuit Judges, and, to set at rest this vexed question, the court, in a decision rendered by Judge Bowden, holds substantially that in the absence of the regular Circuit Judge a special Judge may be elected by the members of the bar, to hold the Court for the entire term, and it is therefore not necessary to elect a special Judge for each particular case.

THE following is from the American Register: The first tariff ever imposed was in 1789. The colonies along the Atlantic sea-board prior to this had collected customs duties, and selling imports thus taxed to those of the interior were enabled to make these interior populations pay the cost of governing the coast-line populations, the latter hardly felt burdens of government. The Union was created that the central government, for the equal advantage of all the States, might collect revenues for the common purposes of all. In the preamble to the tariff act of 1789 it is written that "for the encouragement and protection of manufactures, duties shall be levied upon goods, wares, and merchandise imported," &c. The first tariff averaged 8½ per cent., with 5 per cent. on cottons and 7½ per cent. on iron and steel. The protected class evidently liked the douceurs given by central power, and in 1789 the average rate of duties was 11½ per cent., with still 7½ on iron and steel, and 5 on woolens, and a raise to 7½ on cottons. These are tariffs of whose "happy effects" Washington spoke. Why not test the effects of such a tariff to-day? We believe that every true and honest patriot like Washington would approve it. A revenue tariff is a protective tariff; but a protective tariff loses its character and its virtue as an agency for the production of revenue and assumes every guise of robbery and wrong. Industries that only asked for 8 or at most 10 per cent. as a donation from the people, now pampered and spoiled, demand 40 and 50 and even 80 per cent., and such is their combined strength, and such the bribes they proffer, either in money or local influence to which Congressmen owe elevation to office, that these protected industries are omnipotent in legislation and the plundered people voiceless.

Advice to Emigrants.

From the Cincinnati Morning Journal.
The "booming" of Dakota has induced many people to rush into that wild, cold region without the means of making themselves decently comfortable in their new homes. It is folly for people located in the older States to sell off hard-earned property and run away to far eastern regions of which they know nothing beyond the exaggerations of advertising land speculators. There is still room in Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana for people who are willing to work for a living, and who are not constantly dreaming of big fortunes jumping right up out of the ground at them. Emigration is all right in its proper way, but people in search of new abodes should, before they start, know something of the place in which they are to land.

Evidence of a Terrible Crime.
GALENA, ILL., April 13.—Considerable excitement has been occasioned in this city by the finding of the skeleton, intact, of what appears to have been a young woman, in ground remote from any cemetery, and inside of the corporation, which is being dug up for road purposes. The remains were found about two feet from the surface. The skull is broken in on the right side near the base, and the opinion prevails that a foul murder has at some time been committed. A pair of solid gold earring pendants were found near the skull. The matter is to be investigated.

A Desperate Saloon-Keener.
CHICAGO, April 13.—While three constables were serving a State warrant on Morris Studleman, a saloon-keeper in the southern portion of the city, Studleman drew a revolver and shot Constable Edward Mooney in the right breast, inflicting a wound which will prove fatal. He also wounded Constable Richard Ganford. The saloon-keeper was finally landed in jail after reinforcements of police had arrived and smashed in the door of a room where he had barricaded himself.

"HAZEL KIRKE." A charming picture of domestic life.

LEXINGTON is now lighted by twenty-five electric burners.

HEMP is quoted at $4.65 at Lexington, and the crop is said to be very fine.

S. H. BARRETT & Co's. circus will exhibit in Maysville on Monday, May 7th.

THE mercury registered eighty-seven degrees in the shade yesterday afternoon.

"HAZEL KIRKE." A domestic drama, direct in its simplicity, unerring in its pathos.

THE iron front for Dr. Moore's business house on Second street arrived to-day. It is to be put up immediately.

MRS. A. J. WILLIAMS' show windows this week are attracting much attention. The display of cashmeres and satins is unusually handsome.

WE hear of several persons who expect to begin building houses in Chester as soon as there is a certainty that the street railway will be constructed.

THE last agony in note paper resembles discolored parchment, which by means of dark coloring is made to look as if it had rotted away in places from sheer age.

THE slanderous Louisville Post says: A Maysville man poisoned a biscuit for rats. Mother-in-law ate the biscuit. The M. m. now believes in a special providence.

AVOID the rush for seats for "Hazel Kirke" by securing them at once. The celebrated play is announced for next Wednesday, one night only, and the only representation here this season.

MR. G. W. GEISEL, who has been an indefatigable gatherer of prehistoric relics has deposited a large and valuable collection in the rooms of the Historical Society. There are many curious and rare articles in the lot which will be of great interest to all persons interested in mound investigation.

THE Mugby Junction tea party is a device of Massachusetts invention, for yielding fun and money for the churches. Baskets containing suppers for two persons are sold by auction. Each bears the card of the woman who prepared the meals enclosed, and the purchaser has her for a companion at table.

MRS. ELIZABETH MEANS, the venerable mother of Robert F. and Q. A. Means, of this city, died on Thursday evening, the 12th inst., near Concord, of paralysis. She was born at Shephardsville, Bullitt county, Ky., in 1802, and was consequently eighty-one years of age. Mrs. Means was an esteemed citizen of the community where she lived so many years and her death will be sincerely deplored there and elsewhere.

THE work of securing subscribers to the $20,000 worth of first mortgage bonds of the street railway is progressing satisfactorily. A considerable part of the amount has been taken and it is thought the remainder can be placed among our own citizens. The projectors of the enterprise are very much encouraged and hope in a few days to be able to announce that active steps toward the construction of the road will be taken. Such of our citizens, who can afford to do so, ought to come forward immediately and take the bonds that remain.

THE speech of the Hon. J. Proctor Knott at the Court House yesterday afternoon, was a sound and able explanation of the true principles of Democratic government, and was heard by a large and highly pleased audience. Such speeches throughout the State at this time would be of incalculable service to the party. Mr. Knott is a forcible and pleasing speaker of great earnestness, and with the power of carrying conviction with his words, and while his claims upon the Democracy were strongly presented, his speech was remarkably free from unfavorable criticism of any of the gentlemen who are contesting with him for the gubernatorial nomination. He left this afternoon for Scott county, where he is announced to speak this evening.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Fourth Day's Proceedings---Continuation of the Cooper-Insko Trial---Evidence for the Defense.

Lee Frich, sworn, and said: Don't know Cooper and his wife. Was at the fair last day, Saturday, saw Cooper and wife when I went out there. Had no conversation with them that day, saw them again just before shooting was done--close to it when it took place. He was close to left post, (post farthest from pike at steps.) Had just came up behind them (Cooper and wife) I saw some one come up. He and two young girls came up, one on each arm. They came up facing. I didn't know who this fellow was. He said "there's the d--n s--n of a b--h, now I intend to kill him." Cooper said "If you do, you'll have to be quicker than I am." I turned around and ran back, was afraid there would be some shooting. Hadn't run far, before I heard first shot. Heard second shot when I got down on the ground. The two women tried to pull him back he tried to get away from them. Saw Insko after he was laid out in hall. Can't be positive that he was the same man. When these words were spoken the man was looking at Cooper. There were a good many persons between me and Cooper and between Cooper and this man. Have known Cooper and his wife about four years. Have gone there a good deal. Live about three-quarters of a mile from them. When I went home, told my cousin Mr. York, about this, never told any one but him about what I heard till I was summoned. I was in three or four feet of Cooper. The man, women were about as far from Cooper as that is from me pointing to an object about ten or twelve feet from him.) There were parties between us. The women were pulling him back. I had ran some distance when I heard first shot, was down on ground when second shot was fired. Joseph Cooper, Related to George Cooper, an twenty-eight years old. Live in Bracken county, with my mother. Wasn't there at time of killing. Am a married man, my brother George is about twenty-five years old. His strength last fall was not very great. He is crippled. He had been married about three weeks before fair, was at fair every day, was a policeman. Don't recollect of seeing Insko there, saw my brother once that day. Saw him a short time before shooting. I came up stairs from stable. Saw him standing near, I was with him about ten minutes (several questions were asked by Mr. Wadsworth, attorney, at this point concerning a conversation, witness had with Cooper at that time, but they were ruled out.) He left and went round towards steps. His wife came up and asked where George was. I pointed George out to her. He was thirty or thirty-five feet away. She joined him and they went on towards steps. Had about time to walk to steps when I heard shots. Didn't see them. Didn't see smoke. I saw Insko afterwards lying on promenade near post. Saw a bullet hole in floor about two feet from post. Next saw him in Floral Hall about one and a half hours after. Helped under him and lay him out. Saw wound on left hand. It looked like a flesh wound. It was quivering on hand. It was high up.

The defense introduced other witnesses, whose testimony we are unable to give, at the session of court last night. The attorneys for the defense announced that they were through. A few witnesses were introduced in rebuttal, and court adjourned till this morning.

THE impression exists at Minerva that Wm. Bradbury, who killed Ephraim Dragroo on Thursday afternoon and subsequently escaped from the officer who arrested him, has committed suicide. No news has been heard of him in the neighborhood, although the closest search has been made. His friend are now hunting for his body, and it is now said that there are good reasons for believing that at the time the murder was committed he was mentally irresponsible for the act. Hitherto he is said to have been a quiet and orderly citizen and was well thought of by all who knew him.

Death of Thomas M. Allen.

The news was received in Maysville this morning of the death of Mr. Thomas M. Allen at the Good Samaritan Hospital at Cincinnati, yesterday. The remains will arrive in this city to-night.

HIS MA DECEIVES HIM.

Pecks Sun.

"Give me ten cents worth of saffron, quick," said the bad boy to the grocery man, as he came in the grocery on a gallop, early one morning, with no collar on, and no vest. He looked as though he had been routed out of bed in a hurry, and had jumped into his pants and boots, and put on his coat and hat on the run.

"I don't keep saffron, said the grocery man, as he picked up a barrel of ax-handles the boy had tipped over in his hurry. "You want to go over to the drug store on the corner, if you want saffron. But what on earth is the mat--"

At this point the boy shot out of the door, tipping over a basket of white beans, and disappeared in the drug store. The grocery man got down on his knees on the sidewalk and scooped up the beans, occasionally looking over to the drug store, and just as he got them picked up the boy came out of the drug store and walked deliberately towards his home, as though there was no particular hurry. The grocery man looked after him, took up an ax-handle, spit on his hands and shouted to the boy to come over pretty soon, as he wanted to talk with him. The boy did not come to the grocery till towards night, but the grocery man had seen him running down town a dozen times during the day, once he rode up to the house with the doctor, and the grocer surmised what was the trouble. Along towards night the boy came in in a dejected sort of a tired way, sat down on a barrel of sugar, and never spoke.

"What is it, a boy or a girl," said the grocery man, winking at an old lady, with a shawl over her head, who was trying to hold a paper over a pitcher of yeast with her thumb.

"How in blazes did you know anything about it," said the boy as he looked around in astonishment, and with some indignation. "Well, its a girl, if you must know, and that's enough," and he looked down at the cat playing on the floor with a potato, his face a picture of dejection.

"O, don't feel bad about it," said the grocery man, as he opened the door for the old lady. "Such things are bound to occur. But you take my word for it, that young one is going to have a hard life, unless you mend your ways. You will be using it for a cork to a jug, or to wad a gun with, the first thing your ma knows."

"I wouldn't touch the darn thing with the tongs," said the boy, as he lied enough to eat some crackers and cheese. "Gosh, this cheese tastes good. I hadn't had nothing to eat since morning. I have been all over this town trodding for nurses. They think a boy hasn't got any feelings. But I wouldn't care a god darn, if ma hadn't been sending me for neuralgia medicine, and bay fever snuff all winter, when she wanted to get rid of me. I have come in the room lots of times when ma and the sewing girl were at work on some flannel things, and ma would hide them in a basket and send me off after medicine. I was deceived up to about four o'clock this morning, when pa came to my room and pulled me out of bed to go over on the West Side after some old woman that knew ma, and they have kept me whooping ever since. What does a boy want of a sister, unless it is a big sister? I don't want no sister that I have got to hold, and rock, and hold a bottle for. This affair breaks me all up," and the boy picked the cheese out of his teeth with a sliver he cut off the counter.

"Well, how does your pa take it?" said the grocery man, as he charged the boy's pa with cheese, and saffron, and a number of such things.

"O, pa will pull through. He wanted to boss the whole concern until ma's chum, an old woman that takes snuff, fired him out into the hall. Pa sat there on my hand-sled, a perfect picture of despair, and I thought it would be a kindness to play it on him. I found the cat asleep in the bath-room, and I rolled the cat up in a shawl and brought it out to pa and told him the nurse wanted him to hold the baby. It seemed to do pa good to feel that he was indispensable around the house, and he took the cat on his lap as tenderly as you ever saw a mother hold an infant. Well, I got in the back hall, where he couldn't see me, and pretty soon the cat began to wake up and stretch himself, and pa said, 's-h-h go to sleep now, and let pa hold it,' and pa rocked back and forth on the hand-sled and began to sing 'by, low, baby.' That settled it with the cat. Well, some cats can't stand music, anyway, and the more the cat wanted to get out of the shawl, the louder pa sung, and bimeby I heard something rip, and pa yelled, 'seat you brute,' and when I looked around the corner of the hall the cat was bracing himself against pa's vest with his toe nails, and yowing, and pa fell over the sled and began to talk about the hereafter like the minister does when he gets excited in church and then pa picked up the sled and seemed to be looking for me or the cat, but both of us was awful scarce. Don't you think there are times when boys and cats are kind of few around their accustomed haunts? Pa don't look as though he was very smart, but he can hold a cat about as well as the next man. But I am sorry for ma. She was just getting ready to go to Florida for her neuralgia, and this will put a stop to it, cause she has to stay and take care of that young one. Pa says I will have a nice time this summer pushing the baby wagon. By the great horn spoons, there has got to be a dividing line somewhere, between business and pleasure, and I strike the line at wheeling a baby. I had rather catch a string of perch than to wheel all the babies ever was. They needn't procure no baby on my account, if it is to amuse me. I don't see why babies can't be sawed off onto people that need them in their business. Our folks don't need a safe, and there are people people just suffering for babies. Say, how would it be to take the baby some night and leave it on some old bachelor's door step. If it had been a bicycle, or a breech loading shot gun, I wouldn't have cared, but a baby? It makes me tired. I'd druther have a prize package. Well, I am sorry Pa allowed me to come home, after he drove me away last week. I guess all he wanted me to come back for was to humiliate me, and send me on errands. Well, I must go and see if he and the cat have made up."

And the boy went out and put up a paper sign in front of the store, "Leave your measure for saffron tea."

MESSRS. SULSER, PETRY & Co., the largest manufacturers of cigars in Maysville, have agreed to give the price asked by the operatives, and the strike is now at an end. The agreement would have been signed yesterday when the other manufacturers approved it, except for the absence of both Mr. Sulser and Mr. Petry from the city. The best of feeling exists all around.

WE take pleasure in calling the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Blatterman & Power which appears in another column. This firm makes a specialty of supplying stoves of the latest design and best qualities, which they guarantee to be made of hot blast charcoal iron, and not from scrap iron. These stoves they warrant to last longer and give better service than any others in the market. They also call attention to their various specialties which will be found enumerated in the advertisement. Their prices, they assure their friends, are as low as any other establishment can offer.

POOR MARKSMEN.

An Editor and Printer Shooting at Each Other Who Couldn't, on Fair Trial, Hit the Side of a Barn.

PINE BLUFF, Ark., April 13.—Arthur Murray, editor of the Press-Eagle, and A. D. Wright, late a compositor on that paper, indulged in a street duel last evening. An article in the Press-Eagle denounced Wright as a cowardly traducer and hypocritical scoundrel, and an unscrupulous liar. Wright was on the pavement of the postoffice as Murray approached from the south side. When Murray was about midway of the street Wright rapidly advanced, and when within a foot or two of the former fired over the shoulders of Rev. Dr. Browning, pastor of the Methodist Church, who was between him and his antagonist.

Murray promptly returned the fire over the other shoulder of the minister, and pushed him aside, and endeavored to fire a second time, but the cylinder of his pistol declined to do duty. Wright fell back gradually, firing, and about this time the police arrested both parties. Wright fired three times and Murray once. Wright was arrested on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Six lawyers, among them the State's Attorney, witnessed the affair, and as lawyers are proverbial for not agreeing two testified that Wright fired the first shot, two that Murray did, and the other two did not know which did. The preponderance of the evidence was that Wright did. Murray's face was burnt with powder, as was Dr. Browning's, so close to him was the firing on both sides.

A Disastrous Minie Ball.

St. Louis, April 13.—A remarkable case of accidental shooting occurred in Jacob Helfrich's saloon, Belleville, Ill. August Minie, who lives about three miles from town on the poor-house road, and Mary Wissett, aged eighteen, a domestic in Helfrich's house, were both shot at the same instant by a single discharge of an old four-barreled pepperbox pistol. The young woman called Minie to open the pistol, saying that she could not. He complied, and the ancient weapon was discharged. The ball first passed through the palm of his left hand and struck Miss Wissett in the right thigh, lodging in her left thigh. It will be several days before the extent of her injuries are known, but this morning she is tolerably easy. Minie was taken to the house of a relative.

A Suspicious Case of Bankruptcy.

CHICAGO, April 13.—John Morrison, a carriage maker, confessed judgment to-day for $2,500 in favor of his brother William. The cause of his failure he alleges to be that burglars last night took $7,000 from his safe, leaving him practically a bankrupt. Detectives this morning examined his safe and are suspicious that Morrison himself took the money, as the safe was found locked this morning by the first employee entering the shop, but the inside of the safe had been tampered with, and greenbacks and checks were scattered over the floor. The case will be investigated.

A Young Man Vaporized.

MUNCIE, Ind., April 13.—About 1 o'clock yesterday Charles Rhodes, a young man eighteen years old, started to the country with a box of hercules cartridges under his arm, used to blow up stumps. When only about half a mile from the city the entire box of cartridges exploded, blowing his body to pieces. Some of his clothes hung on trees seventy feet high. Buildings nearby were made a total wreck.

Why Schaefer Beat Vignaux.

NEW YORK, April 12.—Maurice Daly, Wm. Sexton and Joseph Dion have returned from Chicago, and express no particular fondness for the new balk line game. They are anxious to meet Schaefer and Vignaux at cushion caroms. Daly says that Schaefer's art of nursing the balls across the balk line was almost perfect, and he thought with a little more practice that Schaefer would be able to play it almost as well as he does the rail. The game consists, he says, in a continual repetition of three shots. Vignaux had been taking life gayly in Chicago until the first night that Schaefer played, and he saw this feat of nursing. After that the Frenchman devoted all his spare time to practicing it, but he did not begin soon enough to save himself from defeat.

Fred Wagoner's Body Found.

DENVER, Col., April 13.—The body of Fred Wagoner, brother of the deceased palace car man, a native of New York, and for whom extended search was made last fall, was found by emigrants on the banks of a creek, eight miles from Powers' Station on the Santa Fe Railroad. The body was terribly disfigured, and considerable money was found scattered about. A bullet hole in the back of the neck proves conclusively that he was murdered for the large amount of money carried on his person.

In Need of an Intelligent Physician.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 13.—Two weeks ago two popular young men died at Norristown of what was at first supposed to be measles, but was really smallpox. Over 200 people attended their funeral, and consequently were exposed to the contagion. There has been no vaccination in Norristown for several years, and all who were exposed were liable to have the disease. Fifteen cases of smallpox developed there Monday and several more Tuesday and Wednesday. The inhabitants of the stricken place are fleeing in every direction, and the town will soon be depopulated.
